LIVE AUCTION

1. (Valued $600) Starting bid $300

A certificate good for a Family Emergency Planning consultation, a Small Business Continuity and Recovery consultation, or a combination of the two that does not exceed five hours of 'working' time.

Family Emergency Planning is focused on examining hazards and risks that involve local family members and developing a systematic approach for either minimizing their potential negative effects or recovering from those effects if they can not be avoided. This usually consists of a Hazard and Vulnerability Analysis (HVA), a family communications plan, an immediate evacuation plan, a delayed evacuation plan, a shelter-in-place plan, and a reconstitution plan (gathering the family again if any members are separated during an emergency). The consultation should allow for a basic HVA to be completed as well as putting together a basic family plan and guidance to expand/improve that plan independently.

Business Continuity Planning is similar to Family Emergency Planning, but instead of being focused on the well being of family members it is intended to allow a business to continue operating through an emergency or to be able to return to operations afterwards. It should be noted that after a large scale or disaster 4 out of 7 small businesses that are impacted will go out of business within the following year. Business Continuity Planning is one way to try and prevent that from happening. A solid Business Continuity Plan will have some of the same elements as a Family plan (HVA, communications plan, evacuation and sheltering plans) but also includes other elements such as a media plan, a supply chain or logistics plan, a cash flow plan, and a reputation management plan. The consultation should allow for a basic HVA to be completed and for three or four of the planning elements to be started based upon the business owner's priorities. As with the Family Plan, guidance and materials will be provided to allow the business owner to complete the plan on their own if they choose to do so.

6. Organic Wines Around the World (Starting bid $100)

Let your senses have a trip around the world with these 6 magnificent bottles of organic wine.

Organic Wines Around the World

GREECE

Tetramythos 2008 Roditis White V.Q.P.R.D.

100% Roditis

Organic dry white wine from Diakopto-Kalavryta in Peloponnese. At Ano Diakopto of Aegialia, on the slopes of mountain Aroania, in the area of high quality wine production of Patras. Light yellow in color with green apple and lemon flavors. Soft and elegant with long aftertaste. Combines ideally with seafood, pies and white meats. Tetramythos is Greek for "four myths, or stories." Four brothers own the winery and were told that because they were farmers, not winemakers, they would never succeed. This wine won a silver in the Decanter Wine awards, proving the naysayers wrong – this was no myth, but four successful winemakers.

PORTUGAL

Casa Agricola Roboredo Madeira 2008 Douro White

Verdelho, Siria, Rabigato and other Portuguese traditional varieties from vineyards older than 60 years.

The grapes are harvested 100% by hand, then destemmed and crushed, skin contact maceration, cold settling, fermentation for 6 weeks. "batonnage" for 4 months.

Fermented in French oak and stainless steel. Organic, EC certified by Sativa.

Wine Spectator: 88 pts. "This medium-bodied white is filled with rich tropical fruit, citrus and herbal flavors. The taut finish features well-focused mineral notes.

Drink now. 2,000 cases made. –KM"

Casa Agricola Roboredo Madeira 2007 Quinta Do Côa

A blend of Tinta Roriz, Touriga Francesca, Touriga Nacional grapes
(Tinta Roriz is the Portuguese name for Tempranillo)

The grapes are crushed and destemmed; cold maceration for 48 hours and then alcoholic fermentation for 15 days followed by malolactic fermentation that occurs under controlled temperature at 18°C for 15 days. Less than 50% of the wine aged in French and American extra fine grain oak barrels medium toast, the other part aged in stainless steel tanks. Organic, EC certified by Sativa

The fruit has a reserved presence in both aromas and texture on the palate with soft and accessible tannins. It shows a good amount of complex raspberry character mixed with notes of herbs, spice and intriguing minerality.

Wine Spectator: 91 Pts. "A plush red, with a pretty array of raspberry and plum flavors that are supple and supported by medium-grained tannins. Notes of milk chocolate and cream fill the plush finish. Drink now through 2014. 5,000 cases made."

CARM - Casa Agrícola Roboredo Madeira, Lda is a strictly family concern, having been in the same family since business began in the middle of the 17th century. Farming activity has always been centered on the region in which the river Douro flows into Portugal, where the world's oldest denomination also has its origin, the "Região Demarcada do Douro" of Port wine.

FRANCE

2007 Font des Prieurs Coteaux du Languedoc Rouge

Certified organically grown blend of Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre. From the ancient village Gabian, in the heart of the Languedoc this is a velvety wine with aromas of red fruit, coffee, licorice and a soft minerality.

ITALY

2006 Chianti San Vito DOCG

100% organically grown Sangiovese.

Red-wine fermentation, with 8-10 day maceration on the skins and regular pumpovers for several days. Malolactic fermentation follows immediately. Maturation in steel and glass-lined vats, with further bottle-ageing. Sparkling ruby red; crisp, full-fruited aromas; beautifully balanced palate with appealing flavors. Perfect with meat-based first courses and with all roasts.

SPAIN

2001 Ermita Petrer Reserva

An interesting blend of Monastrell (aka Mourvedre), Tempranillo, and Cabernet Sauvignon

The fruit soars from the glass. On the nose, a bit of rustic black cherry from the Monastrell changes to ripe blackberry, dusty cocoa and toast.

A very special thank you to the teachers of Colonial Nursery School. Carrie, Rene, Laurie, Lynann, and Bess's hard work and dedication not only to the auction but on a daily basis is appreciated. One great teacher can make all the difference—so you can imagine how lucky we are to have five extraordinary educators at Colonial Nursery School. Teachers may not always see the impact of their work on kids and families, but the testimonies from parents and students themselves are proof that good teaching is a powerful thing. Thank you. Let's now begin the bidding on these child created masterpieces!
